SWP provides logistics services to move precious metals of any value to and from many locations worldwide. Whether your gold and silver are currently located in your home, at a bank or at another secure storage facility, SWP's dedicated Logistics Team can help you move your precious metals.

All shipments arranged by SWP are fully insured door-to-door and are handled by leading carriers such as FedEx and Loomis International. The weight and value of the shipment determines if armored transportation is required.

SWP handles all the paperwork, including the preparation of commercial invoices, shipping labels and customs clearance documents. We also provide clear packing instructions to help prepare the material prior to shipping.
